

When we include with awareness all three intelligences – the mental, the emotional, and the instinctual – gratitude and appreciation naturally flow. Our egoistic identity can now trust that it is safe and can turn toward essence, bowing its head to the heart's embrace. What was hidden comes to light. The ego, now supported, can wholly devote itself to serving our inherent, divine grace.